

THE STONES EXPERIENCE EPK

“The Stones Experience” know it’s only Rock ’n Roll and they like it, live it and do it well. They bring that to the table, big time! Everyone digs the Stones whether they’re eighteen or eighty and this show band recreates that sound and the songs you know and love - with authenticity, professionalism and about 150 years of combined musical experience between the 5 guys.

Not just another tribute show, these accomplished musicians came together over a mutual love of all things Rolling Stones, and on seeing them perform live, their talent and devotion is obvious and makes for a genuine performance of credibility and believability.

Testimonials

“Hi John, I just wanted to let you know I was really impressed with the show – it was definitely a resounding success!! It was great to see so many people on the dance floor and they all seemed to know the words to the songs. We will definitely be booking your show again.”

Ray Fellenberg (Chairman Burleigh Heads Bowls Club)

“Saw you guys tonight at Greenbank RSL – fantastic show! I’m a diehard Stones fan and your show is spot on. The sound was perfect and ‘Mick’ and ‘Keith’ have their moves down. Good selection of songs, especially ‘Bitch’ which I didn’t expect. Would definitely see it again.”

Dean, Greenbank RSL

“The Stones Experience Tribute Band are a wonderful experience of sight and sound. The songs and costumes are a must to be seen and heard. It is a pleasure to listen to them perform the Rolling Stones original songs with 100% commitment.

Steve, Security, Southport Sharks

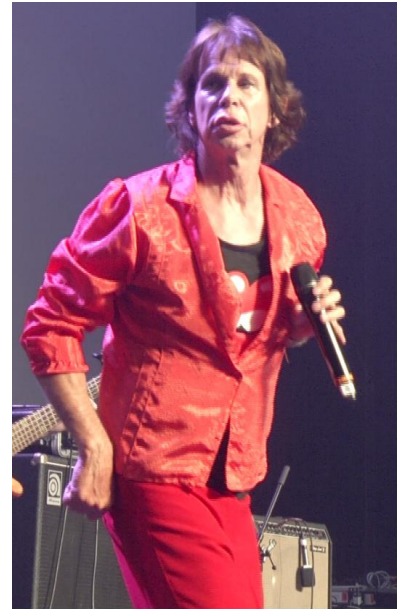

“I thoroughly enjoyed the band, they were very authentic, the experience here has been really, really fun and I think that's what it's all about. It's just been a terrific night and 'Miick Jagger' certainly does play a Mick Jagger, thank you..”

Jane Harrison Smith (Howl At The Moon)

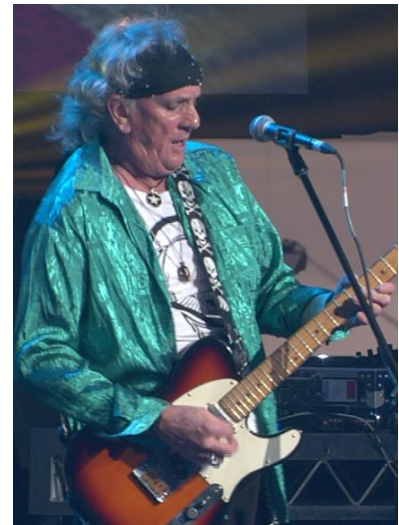

“The Rolling Stones Experience, Howl at the Moon, legendary, what a performance! The unison of the band, the... the commander of the pirate ship Keith Richards, the magical Mick Jagger, the intimate Charlie Watts, absolutely fantastic.

We've heard all the greats, Wild Horses, Satisfaction, Under My Thumb, Honk Tonk Women, absolute magic.

Picture This!

“ Imagine you're in a large hall surrounded by 1000 people. Everyone is seated waiting in anticipation of what is to come. The stage is dark and the absence of any kind of music is almost chilling.

You think to yourself, 'what can I expect from this so called Stones Experience?'

Thoughts rush through your mind as you start to conjure up images of a half baked Rolling Stones Tribute band standing motionless on stage, delivering a few hours of back to back Stones tunes. Is this going to be just another standard tribute show?

Suddenly the silence is broken by what appears to be some type of tribal chanting. The stage remains dark but the chanting slowly gets louder and louder. Suddenly it stops. It's dead quiet and still the stage is black. The chanting begins again.

You suddenly remember the Stones concert you attended in the late 90's. It started the same way. You begin to get chills as your anticipation builds and your adrenalin begins to pump. Could this be more than the average tribute band?

Then it happens. With a burst of smoke and lights, the stage explodes with the familiar sound of Keith Richard's guitar with the intro to 'Start Me Up'.

You know the figure on stage is not Keith, and yet it seems almost surreal. Finally the whole band is playing and the adrenalin is now surging through your body as the hall echoes with the melodic sounds of The Rolling Stones.

Then it happens. From the side of the stage he appears, strutting out in the manner the world has become accustomed. You need to look twice to realise it's not Mick Jagger. But the voice and the appearance is so deceiving.
